

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE

Bunkers International expands operations in Buena Ventura, Colombia.

Fuel capacity is doubled in Colombia's largest port to help meet demand.

Orlando – Sept. 10th, 2007 - Bunkers International Corp (www.bunkersinternational.com) is pleased to announce a significant expansion of operations in Buena Ventura, Colombia. The company, working with its strategic partners in Colombia, has significantly increased its available volume of IFO products in the port. The partnership is also in the process of building an additional 1000 metric ton barge.

“We are pleased to be able to expand our operations in Buena Ventura”, said John Canal, President of Bunkers International, “Many of our customers have strategic shipping routes between Asia and South America, and we can offer them high-quality fuel and pricing that is competitive with all west coast South American ports.” Bunkers International offers straight-run fuel in Buena Ventura, with sulphur content generally at 1.5% maximum, low metals, and vanadium less than 200 ppm maximum on 380 CST.

The additional capacity is available immediately; interested customers can contact Bunkers International at any of the company's offices worldwide, or via the company website at www.bunkersinternational.com.

About Bunkers International

Founded in 1995, Bunkers International is a leader in the marine fuel industry, providing trading, physical supply, and brokering services to ship operators around the world. Bunkers International, along with its subsidiaries and strategic agencies, employs more than 50 bunkering professionals who provide a range of bunkering services from our offices in the United States, Colombia, the United Kingdom, Singapore, Turkey, and South Africa. Since inception, the company has serviced several thousand customers, providing tens of thousand of ships with millions of tons of fuel.

In 2000, Bunkers International established a joint venture in Colombia with Vanoil, S.A., called BunkersOil Colombia. Through this joint venture Bunkers International has grown to become the largest marine fuel supplier in Colombia.
